

Flutter Key Terms

1) Git hub:-

A web based platform for version control and collaboration using git.

2) Dependency:-

A Software Package or module - required by a project to function properly.

3) Gradle:-

A build automation tool used for project dependency management and task execution.

4) API:-

A set of rules enabling software application to communicate with each other.

5) Local storage:-

A web storage feature

that allows data to be stored in user browser for persistent access.

4) Pubspec.yaml:-

A configuration file in flutter that defines projects details dependencies assets and fonts.